Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-11 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, to teach: a semiconductor memory device comprising: a level shift circuit, among others as claimed in independent claim 1, includes a fifth MOS transistor which has gate for receiving an inverted signal of an input signal, one end of its current path connected to the other end of the current path of a third MOS transistor, to the gate of a second transistor and electrically connected to the bit line or the first word line, other end of its current path electrically connected to a ground potential.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Taura et al. (6,510,089) disclose a semiconductor memory device comprising a voltage shifter.
